Summary of Issue: We are reviewing meal and break policies with the law changing on 1/1/2026. One minor edit is recommended to the personnel policy Meal Periods paragraph. Insert "by their supervisor". This is not a substantive change, just for clarity/readability. Article III, Employment, Hours of Work, Section G Personnel Policy update. Meal Periods The employee must be completely relieved from duty for the purpose of eating regular meals. The employee is not relieved if he or she is required to perform any duties, whether active or inactive, while eating. If the employee is not completely relieved from duty, the meal period must be counted as hours worked. For example, an employee who is required [insert: by their supervisor] to remain at his/her desk while eating lunch and regularly answers the telephone and refers callers is working. This time must be counted and paid as compensable hours worked because the employee has not been completely relieved from duty.
